

Inland Regional Center

New Residential Service Provider Orientation (NRSPO) Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How often are orientations held?

A: A minimum of two times per year.

Q: Are there fees to attend NRSPO?

A: Yes, current fee is $100.00 for a new provider, and $50.00 for administrator's only.

Q: Is work history verified?

A: Yes, all work history that pertains to providing support to individuals with developmental disabilities will be verified. Please see qualifications page.

Q: How long is the NRSPO certificate valid?

A: The facility must be opened within two (2) years of successfully completing the orientation; otherwise, the orientation must be repeated.

Q: How long does the orientation last?

A: NRSPO lasts one day, beginning at 9 a.m. and dismissal will vary, but approximately 4:00 p.m.

Q: What experience do I need to open my own home?

A: Please refer to the NRSPO Qualifications to review required experience.

Q: What are the current needs?

A: The needs of individuals we support are constantly changing. You can refer to IRC website www.inlandrc.org and look under the service provider tab for "Request for Need" or "Notice of Need" section.