Rights of Individuals with Developmental Disabilities

Each person living in a residential center is entitled to the following rights:

1. You have the right to live in a residential center.
2. You have the right to be treated with respect and dignity.
3. You have the right to live in a community setting.
4. You have the right to participate in decision-making.
5. You have the right to receive appropriate accommodations.
6. You have the right to receive necessary medical care.
7. You have the right to receive necessary educational opportunities.
8. You have the right to receive necessary vocational opportunities.

These rights are in addition to any other rights guaranteed by law or by the provisions of this facility.