

CREATING A LEGACY, INC. WEBINAR

FEATURING VALERIE POWERS SMITH

Topic: Conservatorships

When: October 26, 2022, 6-8 PM

Creating a Legacy, Inc. invites Attorney Valerie Powers Smith to speak on the topic of conservatorships for parents of children with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Please join us to learn what a conservatorship is, when one is appropriate, how it may benefit your child with special needs, and how to obtain one.

In this webinar, Valerie will discuss:

- What exactly is a conservatorship and what are the different types of conservatorships
- When is a conservatorship necessary
- What is required to obtain a conservatorship
- The legal process for a conservatorship
- The powers of a conservator

Valerie Powers Smith

Find Valerie on Facebook:

Valerie A. Powers Smith, Attorney-at-Law

Contact at SBEMP Attorneys: 760-322-2275

www.sbemp.com | powers@sbemp.com

Valerie A. Powers Smith is the Chair of the Trusts, Estates & Probate and Special Needs & Elder Law Departments at Slovak Baron Empey Murphy & Pinkney LLP, where she is also a Partner. Valerie has practiced for over 25 years with licenses in CA, PA, NY and NJ; and has offices in Palm Springs and Indian Wells, CA; Princeton, NJ; and Manhattan, NY. Valerie's practice areas include special needs trusts, trust administration, estate planning & administration, guardianships and conservatorships, elder law, health care insurance, short-term and long-term disability insurance, Medicaid and Medicare, probate administration, and trust and estate litigation.

SBEMP
ATTORNEYS

